2. In Febmay 1901, he addressed a petition to Govt stating that ~~his service of~~ 8 months ~~and 1 day~~ Service was ignored in calculating his pension and praying for the grant of an additional pension of Rs 4 and odd for the omitted services. As, under the pension rules, only complete years of service are taken into account but not fractions of a year, his prayer was clearly inadmissible. However, taking into consideration the unfortunate circes under which Mr B. Ramaswami Iyer was compelled to retire, the Govt were pleased to enhance the pension by Rs 3-3-5 and as a special case fix it as Rs 118/ pm (Vide G. O No 11769-70 (d 17-1-02) Pta 818 to Govt praying that he might be given a pension calculated on the average emoluments of the last three years of service instead of the one already sanctd to him calculated on the last 5 years' average. In reply he was informed that as he was retired prior to the 21st Decr 1898, the date on which the three years' average rule was first introduced into the state, he could not be shown the benefit of that rule. He reiterated his request in August 1904 when the Govt, as a special case gave him the benefit of the 3 years' average rule and sanctioned to him the payment of a pension of Rs 125-3-4 pm (vide G.O.
